

Data protection notice in accordance with Article 13 of the GDPR

Asclepion takes the protection of its customers' personal data very seriously. Protecting data whilst it is being processed is important to us and we always give great consideration to it in our work. It is necessary for us to process the personal data provided by you and the technical data from our devices so that we can properly fulfil the underlying contractual relationship (purchase agreement, guarantee, service, training and, where applicable, lessors and financial institutions, etc.), and also to the extent we are obliged to by law (e.g. to comply with evidence retention periods for tax authorities). This is based on Article 6 point 1 b and c of the GDPR. Data is erased as soon as it is no longer required for the specified purposes. Any further processing of your personal data only takes place with your consent (voluntarily).

You can receive access to your stored personal data at any time, in accordance with Article 15 of the GDPR. You can also request rectification of the data (in accordance with Article 16 of the GDPR), erasure (in accordance with Article 17 of the GDPR) or restriction of processing (in accordance with Article 18 of the GDPR), as well as assert your right to data portability (in accordance with Article 20 of the GDPR). In addition, you can change or withdraw your consent at any time with future effect, without stating reasons for this, in accordance with Article 21 of the GDPR. Please note that data processing carried out before withdrawal of consent is not affected by this. Please use the following contact details for the above-mentioned purposes.

The controller for data processing is:
 Asclepion Laser Technologies GmbH
 Represented by the MD Dr Danilo Leggieri
 Brüsseler Straße 10, 07747 Jena
